

CRES 605: Reading (Independent Study)

Note: Students may take up to 4 independent study credits, which may count as electives if approved by director. Typically, no more than two credits can be used for any one subject of study. Each credit requires 40 hours of work (research, reading, writing). Work plan will be developed with the advisor. At least one writing assignment is required for each subject of study, to be determined by the advisor.
